Rabbi Paul Offenkrantz Lecture Series on Great Baritones: From Lawrence Tibbett to Dmitri Hvorostovsky. Tuesdays - November 7, 14, 21 and 28, 2017

Following the enthusiastic response to his lectures on The Great Tenors, Rabbi Offenkrantz returns to dive "deeper" into the male vocal range with: The Great Baritones: From Lawrence Tibbett to Dmitri Hvorostovsky. You will not only learn to identify and recognize the various subcategories within the operatic baritone voice, but – through rare archival video footage. Experience the thrill of many of the greatest baritones of the last 100 years including: Giuseppe di Luca, Titta Ruffo, Lawrence Tibbett, Gino Bechi, Leonard Warren, Tito Gobbi, Robert Merrill, Ettore Bastianini, Cornell MacNeil, Sherrill Milnes, and many more.

Rabbi-Cantor Paul Offenkrantz, D.M.

Paul Offenkrantz began his professional singing career on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera at the age of nine. From 1972-1977, Paul appeared at the MET in more than twenty different productions, sharing the stage with such stars as Richard Tucker, Robert Merrill, Luciano Pavarotti and Placido Domingo, and singing under the baton of such maestros as Leonard Bernstein and James Levine. As a child soloist, Paul was heard as the offstage voice of the shepherd in Puccini's Tosca and as Fyodor in Mussorgky's Boris Godunov.

A native of Brooklyn, Paul is a graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music. After continuing his musical studies at The Yale School of Music, he entered Hebrew Union College where he earned a Master of Sacred Music degree and received Cantorial Ordination. While a student there, Paul was the recipient of numerous awards for outstanding achievement and was chosen to participate in a musical tour of Israel for the country's 40th Anniversary.

In his distinguished career, Paul has served congregations in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, and West Palm Beach. In each community, he has brought tremendous passion, warmth, skill, creativity, spirituality, humor, knowledge, and an infectious love of Jewish music.

Dr. Robert Rabil Lectures

Lectures by Dr. Robert Rabil who is a Professor in the Department of Political Science at Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters at Florida Atlantic University. Time: 3 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $10 pp for each lecture. No cancellations. Guests welcome.

Sunday, November 12, 2017 - Europe, Islam and Islamism: Jihad or Struggle for New Identity?

This talk surveys the growth of Islam and Islamism in Europe, especially in Great Britain and France, and surveys their various schools. Then it examines the Islamist/Salafist terror attacks carried out in Europe within the context of Church-State relations and Europe's policies of assimilation and multiculturalism. Finally, the talk questions the aspirations of Islam and Islamism in Europe.

Sunday, March 11, 2018 - U.S., Israel and the Arab Gulf: Allies or Foes? This talk examines the U.S.-Israel-Arab Gulf relationship, paying special attention to its development since the First Gulf War in 1990. It surveys Israel's relations with Saudi Arabia, Qatar and United Arab Emirates within the context of the Arab-Israeli conflict and regional dynamics, especially following the Arab rebellions in 2011. Finally, the talk questions whether the deepening of the triangular relationship is a response to Iranian projection of power or a growth of their mutual interest.

Dr. Robert G. Rabil holds a Masters in Government from Harvard University and a Ph.D. in Near Eastern and Judaic Studies from Brandeis University. He served as Chief of Emergency for the Red Cross in Lebanon, and was Project Manager of the U.S. State Department-funded Iraq Research and Documentation Project. He has written extensively on Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Israel, U.S.-Arab Relations, reform in the Arab World, radical Islam and Terrorism. Dr. Rabil is a frequent speaker at major university campuses throughout the country. He lectures and participates in forums and seminars sponsored by the U.S. Government, including the U.S. Army and the National Intelligence Council. He is a professor of Political Science at Florida Atlantic University (FAU) and was recently conferred with an honorary Ph.D. in humanities from the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts.

Seminars

Thursday, November 9, 2017 - Whatever Happened to..... presented by Myrna Goldberger. Some people in our history grab the spotlight for a while and then disappear---where are they now? Let's look at their current lives and compare to the weeks they occupied the headlines. Where are Ruth Madoff, Monica Lewinsky, Sara Palin, Jonathan Pollard, Casey Anthony, Patty Hearst and others? Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Thursday, January 18, 2018 – Weizmann Institute of Science in Israel Seminar - This is an informational lecture about the Institute. WIS Boiler Plate. The Weizmann Institute of Science in Rehovot, Israel, is one of the world's top-ranking multidisciplinary research institutions. The Institute's 3,800-strong scientific community engages in research addressing crucial problems in medicine and health, energy, technology, agriculture, and the environment. Outstanding young scientists from around the world pursue advanced degrees at the Weizmann Institute's Feinberg Graduate School. The discoveries and theories of Weizmann Institute scientists have had a major impact on the wider scientific community, as well as on the quality of life of millions of people worldwide. The American Committee for the Weizmann Institute of Science is a community of dedicated people who share a common vision in support of the Institute. The generous assistance the Institute receives from individuals, foundations, and corporations is vital for its future. Committee members show their devotion to the advancement of the Institute's goals by becoming partners in the search for answers to the most difficult challenges facing humanity. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Seminars

Sunday, January 21, 2018 - Wrap-Up - Art Basel Miami / Art Miami & Satellite Art Fairs 2017 presented by artist Deborah Bigeleisen

- an overview of the trends in modern and contemporary art. This talk's timeliness coincides with the modern and contemporary art fairs that take place in Palm Beach County and Miami in January and February. This discussion is a wrap-up or summary of the trends and state of the ever-changing modern and contemporary art markets based upon the art exhibited at the major Miami International Art Fairs that take place in early December every year. With the visual aid of a PowerPoint presentation highlighting the art, I turn the overwhelming chaos and confusion of over 20 venues into a cohesive presentation. My approach is very 'down to earth.' It is from the perspective of a professional artist and art consultant vs. that of a curator, art historian, or art journalist. Time: 3 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Thursday, January 25, 2018 - Rita Rudner lecture presented by Ira Epstein.

Known as a soft-spoken observational comic, Rita Rudner amuses her audiences with her pithy soft-spoken hysterical one-liners delivered with sharp timing. She finds humor in everyday life and her light-hearted material centers on male-female relationships, the aging process, visiting the doctor, parenting, the challenges of technology and much more. Her jokes aren't just amusing, they are truths about everyday life together with her own funny observations. This presentation will explore her wit and humor through numerous audiovisual clips. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room - Cost: $5 pp.

Sunday, January 28, 2018 - The Unbreakable Miss Lovely - The Holocaust Survivor Who Exposed The Church of Scientology presented by Paulette Cooper Noble.

This is the true story of the woman the Nazis couldn't kill and the Scientologists couldn't stop. Paulette Cooper (Noble) is a Palm Beach writer whose parents were killed in Auschwitz, after which she survived Nazi camps and orphanages to become a successful writer. But her life was almost destroyed after she wrote her first book, which exposed a famous fascistic cult, "The Church of Scientology". Her speech is based on a fascinating new book "The Unbreakable Miss Lovely", (Miss Lovely was Scientology's sarcastic code name for her), written by the former Editor-in-Chief of the Village Voice, Tony Ortega. Paulette Cooper Noble, an award-winning speaker and an award-winning writer, is the author of 23 books. Time: 3 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Thursday, February 1, 2018 - No More Drama With Mama - The Secret To Finding Forgiveness presented by Gayle Kirschenbaum.

Did you ever feel like you were born into the wrong family? I did. According to my mother, I couldn't do anything right and my brothers couldn't do anything wrong. My nose was too big, my hair was too frizzy and my butt too fat. After I left home, went to university and built an Emmy-award winning career, underneath my successful façade I was seething with anger towards my mother. My struggles with trust and abandonment sabotaged many aspects of my life including my personal and romantic relationships. Most people don't believe that I even talk to my mother today much less she is my closest friend. My story is about forgiveness. How I came to understand, forgive and cherish my mother. By discovering the secret to forgiveness I was able to find my power and freedom - freedom from emotional bondage. And in doing so, realized that the biggest obstacle in my life, my challenging childhood ended up being the biggest gift I received. Learning how to forgive empowered me and released my fears of being judged. As a result, I was able to open up my life to the world with a deeply personal film that has connected profoundly with audiences. Now, I teach others how to walk through the door of forgiveness and set themselves free. Anyone can do this. Join Gayle Kirschenbaum for a screening of her award winning film, LOOK AT US NOW, MOTHER! and talk about her journey and method to finding forgiveness. Gayle's mother is Mildred Kirschenbaum, a Boca Pointe member. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $18 pp.

Thursday, February 8, 2018 - Broadway Baby Concert presented by Sharon Steinberg -

Broadway Baby - 16 well-known Broadway hits interspersed with trivia about the shows. The program includes such beloved songs as "I Could Have Danced All Night", "I Am Just a Girl Who Can't Say No" and "Summertime". Sharon Steinberg has been wowing audiences for four decades. Her career began singing folk music in coffee houses. She then went on to sing musicals in community theatres. Her professional work was primarily as an opera/concert singer and she served as a professional cantor over the past 20 years. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Seminars

Thursday, February 15, 2018 - Alan King lecture presented by Ira Epstein - Alan King evolved from a traditional joke-telling comedian into an astute addresser of audiences. He was product of Borscht-Belt humor who rose to international renown, as a man of class, smarts and boundless energy. King elevated storytelling to an art form. Over six decades, he perfected the voice of the frustrated American dealing with inefficient institutions. Known for his pointed monologues about suburbia and everyday life, King had a bold, raw wit that people were drawn to. This presentation will explore his wit and humor through numerous audiovisual clips. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Sunday, February 25, 2018 - Hamilton: The Man, The Myth, The Musical presented by Robert P. Watson, Ph.D. This talk explores the fascinating and controversial life of this Founding Father and the hit musical. Time: 3 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $10 pp. Robert P. Watson, Ph.D. is a historian, author, professor, political commentator and community leader.

Tuesday, February 27, 2018 - Best Picture Oscar Talk presented by Dan Hudak - Journey into this year's Best Picture Oscar nominees with film critic and professor Dan Hudak as he discusses why each film was nominated and which is the odds-on favorite to emerge victorious. Clips and background information about all nominated films will be shared, and a discussion of the Academy's voting habits will lend perspective to choosing the likely winner. Oscar history, trivia, and other major categories will also be covered! It's a lively, insightful and fun hour-long discussion that's not to be missed! Note: Attendees are encouraged to see as many of the nominated films as possible before the presentation. Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Thursday, March 1, 2018 - Events that Happened in March presented by Myrna Goldberger - What are some American events that took place in the month of March? How do they compare to what is happening now? Are there similarities and how did the tempo of the times influence each happening? Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Please note that there are no cancellations for our seminars and guests are welcome.

WORDS...ALIVE

Thursday, January 4, 2018
Natural Women: Carole King, Carly Simon, Joni Mitchell

The 1960's not only brought about tremendous changes in the sound and content of popular music, but also blazed a new path for women to follow toward self awareness and self realization. The music of the 60's challenged the mores and values of American culture and redefined the role of 'woman'. In a dramatic reading "Words...Alive!" explores the backgrounds and intersecting lives of these three female musicians who upended the expectations that had been laid out for women by previous generations. A dramatic curtain fell between the traditional manner in which each grew up and the rebellious adulthood each carved out for herself and which each reflected in her music. Their music inspired women to follow and nothing ever has been the same. They gave us a new sound track to our lives. The dramatic adaptation is based on the book "Girls Like Us" by Sheila Weller and Carly Simon's memoir "Boys in the Trees" and a memoir by Carole King titled "A Natural Woman" Time: 7:30 p.m. in the Imperial Room. Cost: $5 pp.

Friday, December 1, 2017 – Revoiced – Encompassing five talented, charismatic men, this vocal quintet will keep your “ears on their toes” and will have the audience enthralled while experiencing their group without instruments, just their voices!

Friday, January 26, 2018 – Comedian James Stephens III – James is considered to be one of the most versatile and talented of reputable entertainers. He has achieved wide national and international acclaim across his fields as comedian, impressionist, actor and musician. He has graced the stage with legendary greats such as Aretha Franklin and James Brown and shared the screen with Jennifer Aniston and Dana Carvey.

Friday, March 2, 2018 – Emmanuelle and Dean – America’s Power Duo - with talents in all fields of entertainment, the combination of Emmanuelle Adda and Nolan Dean makes for a fast paced show full of comedy, song-musical talents, dance, ventriloquism, magic and more. Together they are dynamite!

Friday, March 23, 2018 – Jim Witter’s Piano Men – A Tribute to Billy Joel, Elton John and Barry Manilow. This is a “Must See” multi-media musical journey back to the Groovy 70’s. Jim Witter’s Piano Men is a musical reunion with the things that turned the 70’s into the “wonder years”.

Don’t miss this great lineup for season!

TLC CLUB

Are you a widowed, divorced or single woman? We have a wonderful group of ladies here at Boca Pointe Country Club that are members of the TLC Club - "Today Life Continues" who are interested in new friends and sharing fun activities together. It was started two years ago and since then over 100 women have joined and have formed many new friendships and memories. We have monthly events such as exciting trips, speakers and activities. We usually meet on the second Thursday of the month at 4:15 p.m. in the MPR. We are looking forward to another season and are planning very exciting events. For more information, please contact:
